

Membership Brochure

Clubhouse Membership

A single person, couple, or family may apply for membership for the use of the dining room and bar facilities and attendance at the Club parties, limited to the use of the dining room and bar facilities. This classification of Membership shall not have voting rights or the use of the golf course and related practice facilities, tennis courts, or pool facilities.

Social/Tennis/Pool Membership

Any adult person, and his/her spouse and dependent children under 23 years of age, shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Club and facilities except the use of the golf course and related practice facilities, subject to the regulations of the Board. This classification shall not have any equity rights nor any voting rights.

Junior Membership

Junior Membership shall be available to individuals between the ages of twenty-one (21) and twenty-nine (29) (member's age on the first day of the fiscal year of the Club). Junior Members shall be entitled to the rights and privileges of the Club and facilities subject to regulations of the Board. Once a Junior Member in good standing reaches the age of thirty (30) their Junior Membership will terminate. They will then automatically convert to Intermediate Membership status within their respective membership category and will not be required to pay any additional initiation fees upon conversion.

Intermediate Membership

Intermediate Membership shall be available to individuals between the ages of thirty (30) and thirty-four (34) years. A person under thirty-five (35) years of age on the first day of the fiscal year of the Club shall remain an Intermediate Member for the entire year. This classification shall have neither equity nor voting rights. An Intermediate Member in good standing upon reaching the age of thirty-five (35) years of age shall, upon application, become a Regular Equity Member. Conversion to Regular Equity Membership status will not require the payment of any additional initiation fees.

Regular Equity Membership

Regular Equity Membership shall be eligible to those who are at least thirty-five (35) years of age at the beginning of any membership year (January 1st) and shall include full privileges and unlimited use of all Club facilities.

Family Membership: Family Membership shall be comprised of those who are legally married or an individual who is unmarried, with dependent children and who is otherwise qualified for acceptance to membership.

Single Membership: Single Membership shall be comprised of those who are presently unmarried, without dependent children and who are otherwise qualified for acceptance to membership.

Business Clubhouse Membership

This membership classification is designed for businesses seeking private dining facilities for corporate meeting, functions, and business dining, whether in-house or client-oriented. Social event privileges are also extended to the business dining members' families. There is a limit of ten (10) designated signers per membership. Special application forms are available in the Clubhouse office.

Business Membership

Business Memberships are available to corporations, general partnerships, limited liability companies and sole proprietorships. There shall be one primary member who must maintain a Regular Member Equity or Regular Single Equity Membership at all times.

The primary member may designate up to a maximum five (5) designees who are either owners, officers, or employees of the corporation, general partnership, limited liability company, or sole proprietorship. The person(s) designated to use the membership(s) may be changed once in any calendar year with the payment of a One-Hundred Dollar ($100.00) administrative fee. Each designated member must be approved for membership in the Club.

Initiation Fee: The initiation fee for the primary Member shall be $3000. Each additional designated Member shall pay an initiation fee of 50% of the applicable initiation fee for the membership classification in which the individual would otherwise qualify.

Dues: Dues for each Member of the Business Membership shall be the same as those charged in the applicable membership classification for which each individual would otherwise qualify. The Business must guarantee such dues payments of the primary member and any additional designees.

Upgrades & Downgrades: For a designated Member to upgrade their Membership status, or for the replacement of a designated Member to be upgraded in status, the appropriate designated Business initiation fee must be paid less the initiation fee initially paid for membership by the previously designated Member. Once a Regular Membership initiation fee has been paid for a designated Member, downgrades in membership status will be allowed, once in any calendar year, with the payment of a One-Hundred Dollar ($100.00) administrative fee.

Voting Rights: There shall be only one vote per Business Membership, that being represented by the primary Member.

Resignation: Any Member in this category for more than one (1) year who resigns from their position, retires or otherwise leaves his or her affiliation with the firm or business association supporting their membership shall, upon payment of a transfer fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the current initiation fee for the membership classification applied for, be exempt from the payment of any additional initiation fee when applying for a personal membership if such application is made within ninety (90) days of their leaving the position that held their previous membership.
